ANOTHER LIBEL SUIT

Arthur Brown Sues the Tribune for $25,000.

THE FRENCH CO. VS. THE JORDAN

The Evidence Closed Yesterday—The Usual Divorce Case—Miscellaneous Business—An Appeal—Probate Proceedings.

The Tribune now has another libel suit pending against it, and the claims of those whose characters have been maligned will aggregate about a quarter of a million.

The last suit was commenced in the Third district court yesterday by Arthur Brown, the well known lawyer. In his complaint Mr. Brown alleges that on February 8th last an election was held in this city and he was duly appointed a judge of election at poll 2, in the Fourth precinct, and acted as such; that in the daily issue of the Tribune of February 17th, the defendants published of concerning the plaintiff, and of the doings of the plaintiff as such judge of election, the following false, malicious, scandalous and defamatory libel, using the following words of and concerning the plaintiff:

WARNED HIM OUT OF TOWN.

THE WAY ARTHUR BROWN TRIED TO WARN OFF

Patrick Hegney, a laboring man, called at the Tribune office last evening and related a somewhat peculiar but no doubt truthful tale. He has been a resident of this city during the past fifteen months and has worked as a stone-mason's helper for Clinton & Mahoney and on buildings erected by Collier & Gillette. For the past few months and up to Monday last he was employed by Collier & Gillette. On that day he attempted to vote a Liberal ticket at the polls of that precinct, but it was rejected by Arthur Brown. Last night, so he says, while walking on Main street, he was approached by that individual, who informed him that if he wished to avoid trouble he had better get out of town forthwith, to which Hegney replied that so long as he was able to pay his taxes, he could remain here. The interview was of the most unkind and unbecoming character, and also charged the plaintiff with attempting by rejection of the vote of Patrick Hegney while acting as a judge of election as aforesaid; and with corruptly and illegally refusing to permit Patrick Hegney, knowing him to be a duly qualified voter, to vote, because the said voter proposed to vote the Liberal ticket while the plaintiff was acting as such judge of election, and that he corruptly and willfully refused to permit the said Hegney to vote, and that plaintiff, while acting as such judge at said election, unlawfully and corruptly bullied, coerced and prevented Patrick Hegney, a legal voter, from voting, and also thereby charged the plaintiff with attempting by

UNLAWFUL AND IMPROPER MEANS, menaces and threats, to drive said Patrick Hegney out and away from Salt Lake city for the improper and illegal purpose of preventing the said Patrick Hegney from prosecuting the plaintiff for improperly and illegally depriving him of his vote at said election, and that the libel and publication thereof, and that the libel and publication thereof, and each and every charge therein, and each and every inuendo and insinuation therein,

IS FALSE AND MALICIOUS, and is defamatory of said plaintiff; that by means of the said publication of the said libel, the said plaintiff has been greatly injured in his standing and reputation at Salt Lake city, where he lives, and in other places where he is known, and his character maligned and injured to his damage in

THE SUM OF $25,000.

Wherefore he demands judgment against the defendant in the sum of $25,000 and costs of suit.

H. P. HENDERSON, Plaintiff's Attorney.

BEFORE JUDGE ZANE.

The French Company vs. The Jordan—Other Business.

The trial of the case of the Societe Anonyme des Mines de Lexington vs. the Old Jordan, in which the plaintiff sues to recover $4,575.95 alleged to be due for repairs made on the Old Jordan canal, was resumed in the Third district court yesterday and occupied the entire day. The arguments will be made this morning.

DISMISSED.

The case of C. J. Ober vs. S. M. Lovin—Dismissed by agreement.

DEFAULT ENTERED.

In the case of F. L. Cushing vs. Henry Bostwick, judgment was entered for the plaintiff for $50.50.

PAYMENT OF FUNDS.

In the case of W. H. Remington et al. vs. F. H. Young et al., the clerk was directed to pay the funds in his possession to the plaintiffs.

ATTACHMENT RELEASED.

In the case of E. G. Woolley et al. vs. the Fish Bros. Wagon company, the attachment was released.

A DEMURRER.

In the case of Lester T. Rogers vs. Jennie V. Thompson et al., the defendants yesterday filed a demurrer to the complaint.

AN EXCEPTION.

In the case of H. W. Haight vs. C. E.

Another Divorce Case.

After thirty-seven years of married life, Emeline Pickett has brought suit in the Third district court to obtain a divorce from B. G. Pickett, to whom she was married in Kentucky in 1855. In her complaint the plaintiff alleges that in 1886 the defendant willfully and without cause deserted and abandoned her, and she asks for an absolute decree on that ground.

Breeze & Burris are the plaintiff's attorneys.

An Appeal Taken.

In the case of J. J. Farrell vs. Mary Laditte, an appeal was taken yesterday to the Third district court. The case was tried before Commissioner Greenman.

EIGHTEEN POUNDS OF BLOOD

Is about the quantity nature allows to an adult person. It is of the utmost importance that the blood should be kept as pure as possible. By its remarkable cures of scrofula, salt rheum, etc., Hood's Sarsaparilla has proven its claim to be the best blood purifier.

For a general family cathartic we confidently recommend Hood's Pills. They should be in every home medicine chest.

THE PINNACLES ABLAZE.

Fifty Hundred-Candle Power Lights to be Placed on the Temple.

Arrangements are now making whereby the pinnacles of the temple are to be lighted by electricity, fifty hundred-candle power incandescent lights to be used for that purpose. Mr. E. C. Holding, the well known electrician, has the matter in charge, and he says the work is to be completed by the 6th of April next—spring conference. It is also thought that the figure of the Angel Gabriel, which is now in the hands of Sculptor Dallin, will be finished and ready to be placed in position by that time. The idea of illuminating the pinnacles of the lofty steeples of the temple is a novel one, and the most brilliant effects will be produced. It will prove to be a great attraction to all visitors.

THE TEMPTATION

to go out of doors in rough weather is not strong, but we are many of us, compelled to face rough weather frequently. Diseases which arise from a chill are peculiar to no season of the year. This is true, therefore there should be in the closet of every household—what? Not an unadorned stimulant, absolutely devoid of anything but an excitant action, but a tonic combining, in the effective form of an invigorant and an alternative, the quality of defence against changes of weather. Hostetter's Stomach Bitters has three or four properties that no other article of its class possesses. Not only does it relieve the complaints which it eventually cures, it fortifies the system against the bad effects of changes of temperature, fatality and too frequent, and the deadly form of "grippe." It produces a radical change in the weakened condition of a system peculiarly liable to be attacked by it, and it tends to provide against the danger resulting from an impoverished condition of the blood and a disordered state of the liver or bowels.
